TRUE WILL RITUAL

After doing a strong purification, casting a circle, calling the quarters, and doing a strong "tree meditation" (as in Starhawk's Spiral Dance):

- Visualize the essence of each of the elemental energies within and say affirmations identifying with each of the elements, and with what you affirm:
  - "I am Earth, I am centered and strong. I am the vessel through which my True Will manifests.
  - I am Air, I am focused. My mind is keen and tuned to reveal my True Will.
  - I am Fire, I have the power within to know my True Will and to act upon it.
  - I am Water, I am sensitive, intuitive, and magickal. The waters of my inner consciousness are calm, clear and clean. I am able to see into my depths and to know my True Will.
  - I am Spirit. I am all that is. I am Balance and Unity. I am that from which my True Will comes."

- Consecrate a candle with five elemental tools and do a free form chant to dedicate the candle to aid in knowing your true will.

- Light the candle and place it in front of you.

- Gazing at the candle, meditate on the following, one at a time: Know thyself, areas where your are uncertain of your true will, your commitment to act on your True Will when you know it, and spiritual growth from knowledge of self.

- Then chant until you feel unity with the light from the flame "Candle light, candle glow, inner sight, will to know."

- You should then go into a trance and get direct messages from deep within.

- When you have received what you need, tell yourself to remember your insights and take a few deep breaths and return to the circle.

- Then say something like "though I extinguish this candle flame and end this rite, may I always be aware of the flame of will that burns within me, and may I always act according to my True Will, born of Spirit. So mote it be" and blow out the candle.

- Do cakes and wine, ground, and dismiss the quarters and spirit.
